Dear Fellow Republicans,

Thank you for your commitment to our Minnesota Republican Party and its principles.

Over the past eight years, Minnesota has cratered on every fundamental: affordability, economic growth, educational achievement, and public safety. And that's before we talk about the epic fraud or the constant political theatrics in St. Paul.

The time to act is now, and that is why I'm running.

When I see a problem, I look at the situation, the risks, set a goal...and take action. That is how I led as a Marine Corps officer, a manufacturing company CEO, and even as a hockey and baseball coach for my four kids.

It's time to get back to the fundamentals. Let's make Minnesota a Top 10 state again so Minnesota families can thrive. That will take hard work, sacrifice and leadership from all of us, but we can do it.

As the military adage goes, "a good plan executed aggressively today is better than a perfect plan debated tomorrow".

I will abide by and strive for the Republican Party's endorsement. To win, and have a chance at changing the fundamentals, we first must come together behind a strong endorsed candidate and move as one team through the primary to the general election.

This is our moment to deliver for Minnesota. I request your support and the opportunity to turn the state around. Let's get to work!

Respectfully,
